

Education, Leisure and Housing

Kirkwood Bequest: Form G5a

The late Mrs Jeanie Kirkwood has left a substantial bequest to Stromness Academy for the purpose of promoting agricultural and veterinary study for pupils attending Stromness Academy. Pupils wishing to be considered for funding must complete the following information and submit it to Orkney Islands Council by 5 March.

Pupils Details

Name:
Year Group:
Home Address:

Study Details

Only approved full-time courses in the agricultural and veterinary fields will be considered for funding.

- 'Agricultural' is defined as: "The science and art of cultivating the soil; including the allied pursuits of gathering in the crops and rearing livestock".
- 'Veterinary' is defined as: "Pertaining to, connected or concerned with, the medical or surgical treatment of cattle and domestic animals".

Please give brief details of what you intend to study after leaving Stromness Academy:
*Anticipated length of study?	Years (maximum).

*Funding only applies to the course initially approved and would not be extended for 'add on' years, such as Honours, etc.

Authorisation

Applicant Signature:	Date:
Head Teacher Signature:	Date:

This completed application form must be submitted by 5 March to: Kirkwood Bequest, Education, Leisure and Housing, Orkney Islands Council, Kirkwall.

Note: Failure to submit an application by the due date will mean that no bursary can be awarded. If the application is approved, this would entitle the applicant to an annual bursary for the duration of any approved course. However, this bursary will only be paid if form G5b and the appropriate evidence are submitted annually by the due dates for each year of study. You will be contacted about this when required.

For further information, please contact education.grants@orkney.gov.uk, telephone 01856873535 or visit <https://www.orkney.gov.uk>