

Fees for Planning and Related Applications

Updated 1 April 2026

1. Scope of guidance

1.1.

This guidance applies to the following types of planning and associated applications.

- Planning applications
  - Detailed planning permission (PP, HH, MAR)
  - Planning permission in principle (PIP)
- Approval of matters specified in conditions (AMC)
- Variation or removal of a planning condition (section 42 variation) (VR)
- Advertisement consent (AD)
- Certificate of lawfulness (existing use or development, CLEUD)
- Certificate of lawfulness (proposed use or development, CLOPUD)
- Some prior notification and prior approval (PN, APN)
- Application for High Hedge Notice
- Request for Non-Material Variation (NMV)

1.2.

The following types of application do not require a fee and are therefore not covered by this guidance.

- Conservation area consent (CAC)
- EIA screening opinion requests (SCR)
- EIA scoping opinion requests (SCO)
- Listed building consent (LB)
- Modification or discharge of planning obligations (OBL)
- Pre-application screening notice
- Proposal of application notice (PREAPP)
- Tree works (TC, TCA)

1.3.

Planning fees are set by the Scottish Government. The relevant legislation is The Town and Country Planning \(Fees for Applications\) \(Scotland\) Amendment Regulations 2025.

1.4.

Enquiries regarding fees can be directed to – Development Management, Council Offices, School Place, Kirkwall, KW15 1HQ. planning@orkney.gov.uk

1.5. Payment of fees

An application is not valid, and the Council will not start considering it, until the full application fee has been paid.

1.6. Calculation of fees

1.6.1. Site area

Where a fee is based on site area, that area is to be taken as consisting of the area of land to which the application relates. This must include the area of land that will be developed or built on and/or any land for which the use will change. On the submitted location plan, the boundary of the site must be outlined clearly in red.

1.6.2. Floor space

Where a fee is based on floor space (including change of use), the measurement is based on the gross floor space (gross external area) of all storeys of the building measured externally (to the external face of the external/perimeter walls) at each floor level.

1.6.3. Part units of measurement for calculating fee

Where floor space or site area is not an exact multiple of the unit of measurement provided by the fees scale, the amount remaining is taken as a whole unit for the purposes of calculating the fee.

1.6.4. Multiple fee categories

Where an application relates to two or more categories, an amount is calculated for each category of development and then only the highest of the amounts calculated under those categories is the fee charged.

1.6.5. Replacement buildings

To demolish an existing building and rebuild on the same site (including for a 'matching' building), the fee payable is based on the floor space of the new building.

1.7. Retrospective applications

1.7.1.

A surcharge is applied to applications for planning permission where the application relates to development carried out without permission (Section 33 of the 1997 Act). The total fee is that charged for the application for planning permission for that development, as set out in the tables below, plus a surcharge of 25%.

1.7.2.

This applies where an application for planning permission is made after a development has been carried out in full, or where an application for planning permission is made for a development that has been started but not completed, including a revised design of a previous approval.

1.7.3.

It should be highlighted at the time of submission that an application is retrospective, as the surcharge will not be calculated when an application is submitted using e-planning. If it is noted by the Council after validation that a development has been started, the surcharge will be applied then. If the required surcharge is not paid, the application will not be progressed to determination, and the development may be vulnerable to formal enforcement action to resolve the matter.

1.8. Disputes

If there is a disagreement between the applicant and the Council about the amount of the fee payable, the Council will seek to resolve the dispute with the applicant with as little delay to the processing of the application as possible. There is no formal disputes procedure laid down in the Regulations and the ultimate recourse is to the courts.

5. Exemptions to fees for planning applications

Applications made in the following circumstances do not require a fee. Please ensure it is clear on submission that you wish to benefit from a fee exemption by highlighting this in a covering letter or email.

5.1. Means of access etc. for disabled persons

5.1.1.

Applications which relate solely to the carrying out of the following operations do not require a fee.

- Operations in the curtilage or for the alteration or extension of a dwellinghouse, other than the erection of a dwellinghouse, for the purpose of providing means of access to or within the dwellinghouse for a disabled person who resides or proposes to reside in that dwellinghouse, or of providing facilities designed to secure that person's greater safety, health or comfort; or
- Operations for the purpose of providing means of access for disabled persons to or within a building or premises to which members of the public are admitted.

5.1.2.

"Disabled person" means someone who has a physical or mental impairment, and the impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

5.1.3.

Applicants carrying out such alterations to their home will be required to provide written confirmation from a health professional (for example a doctor or physiotherapist) that they meet the criteria.

5.2. Restrictions on permitted development rights (Article 4 directions)

5.2.1.

Where a planning application is required to be made only because a direction under Article 4 of The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (Scotland) Order 1992 is in force, the application is exempt from fees.

5.2.2.

Article 4 directions currently in force in Orkney are within Kirkwall and Stromness Conservation Areas. Contact Development Management to determine whether the work proposed would be exempt.

5.3. Restrictions on permitted development rights (planning conditions)

Where an application is required to be made only because the right to carry out development permitted by The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (Scotland) Order 1992 has been removed by a planning condition attached to a planning permission, that application is exempt from fees. Similarly, applications required only because the right to make a change of use within a class of The Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) (Scotland) Order 1997 has been removed by a condition are exempt.

5.4. Repeat applications for planning permission

5.4.1.

Where an application has been withdrawn, approved, refused, is subject of an appeal to Scottish Ministers on the grounds of non-determination, or is subject of a notice of review to the Local Review Body on the grounds of non-determination, one further application may be made without paying a fee, subject to the conditions below.

5.4.2.

The conditions are that the repeat application must –

- be made by the same applicant,
- relate to the same site as that to which the earlier application related, or to part of that site, and to no other land except land included solely for the purpose of providing a different means of access to the site,
- be the same application type as the earlier application, and
- be for development of the same character or description as development to which the earlier application related and for no other development.

5.4.3.

An applicant may benefit from this exemption only once for any given site or part of that site.

5.4.4.

In the case of applications for approval of matters specified in conditions, the repeat application must relate to the same matters as the earlier application.

5.4.5.

In all the cases, the revised application must be made within the timescales below.

Circumstances of earlier application.	Time limit.
Withdrawn.	12 months from date* of submission of the earlier application.
Approved or refused.	12 months from decision date* of the earlier application.
Appeal to Scottish Ministers or requirement to review by Local Review Body on grounds of non-determination	12 months from the expiry date* of the period within which the planning authority were required to determine the application, or such extended period as may at any time have been agreed upon in writing between the applicant and the authority.

*Note the period '12 months' begins on the relevant date (of submission, decision, etc.), i.e. in relation to 'Approved or refused', if the decision date was 1 April, the 'Time limit' of 12 months would extend to 31 March the following year.

- the dwellinghouse is in a conservation area,
- the application relates solely to development within one or more of the classes specified in schedule 1 of the General Permitted Development Order, and

6.3. Sports or recreational clubs, societies, trusts or other organisations

Where an application is made by a club, society, trust or other organisation which is not established or conducted for profit and whose objects are the provision of facilities for sport or recreation, and the following conditions are satisfied, the fee payable shall be £742. The conditions are that –

- the development must be carried out on land which is, or is intended to be, occupied by the club, society, trust or organisation and used wholly or mainly for the carrying out of its objectives.

6.4. Approval of matters specified in conditions

6.4.1.

Where an applicant has submitted an application and paid fees for an approval of matters specified in conditions under a planning permission in principle and the fees already paid are equal to or more than the amount which would apply if they were applying for all conditions as one application, the fee payable shall be £595.

Some planning applications will require to be advertised in the local press (The Orcadian), for example where they are a departure from the development plan, where there are no premises on neighbouring land to which a notification can be sent, where owners cannot be identified, or where the development is classified as a project of public concern. Where an advert fee is required, this is in addition to the application fee and unless submitted with the planning application, will be requested/invoiced following validation of the planning application.
