

Register of Members' Interests

Councillor: Mellissa Thomson

Ward: North Isles

1. Remuneration

- Formally Royal Mail employee at Kirkwall Sorting Office, Junction Road, Kirkwall (employment concluded February 2025)
- Self-employed and partner in H & M Thomson. Farming, fishing and provision of admin services.

2. Other Roles

- Director (Chair) of Orkney Ferries, SC036770
- Director of Eday Partnership, local development trust, SC279239 and registered Scottish Charity SC042290.
- Trustee of Eday Heritage Centre Association (SCIO), CS003721 and registered Scottish Charity SC048870.
- Committee member of Eday Community Association.
- Member of Sanday School Parent Council (2008 to June 2022)
- Scottish Ambulance Service responder.
- Director of Eday Renewable Energy. SC354906
- Trustee of Development Trust Association Scotland (SCIO) No SC034231 (27.08.24)
- Member of Orkney LAG, formerly LEADER

3. Contracts

- Director of Eday Partnership Development Trust who provide school transport to Orkney Islands Council for Eday Primary School – Route 81

4. Election Expenses

- £569.50 for Election May 2022

5. Houses, Land and Buildings

- Joint Owner of 2 properties in North Isles Ward

6. Interest in Shares and Securities

- Nil

7. Gifts and Hospitality (N/A see paragraph 4.21 of Councillors' Code of Conduct)

- Nil

8. Non-Financial Interests

- Member of Scottish Clay Target Association
- Member of Orkney Club

9. Close Family Members

- Husband is a Member of Eday Community Council
- Husband is Relief Pier Master