Grounds for appeal

You can appeal an offer of temporary accommodation for the following reasons:

<input type="checkbox"/>	A. The property is not of a size that meets the requirement of my household.
<input type="checkbox"/>	B. The property does not meet my known health or medical needs as advised in my housing application form.
<input type="checkbox"/>	C. The property is located in an area that would lead to continued risk of domestic abuse, racial harassment or external violence.
<input type="checkbox"/>	D. The property is outwith the area of my special need. For example, where a child's education/welfare is likely to be severely affected by having to change school or it causes difficulties for me to reach my place of employment.
<input type="checkbox"/>	E. The property is not wind and watertight and does not meet all the Council's repairing obligations.

Please indicate the ground for your appeal by ticking the box that applies above.

Please explain why you wish to refuse the offer of temporary accommodation. Give as much information as you can and use a separate sheet if you need to.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the user to write their explanation for refusing temporary accommodation. The box occupies most of the page's vertical space.

Please send your appeal to the Head of Community Learning, Leisure and Housing at Orkney Islands Council, School Place, Kirkwall, KW15 1NY.
