

Taking the next step in your learning

The Learning Link is a free service which is dedicated to helping adults to gain new skills and increase their self-confidence

Do you want to:

- improve your reading, writing, spelling, grammar?
- understand everyday maths and numbers?
- learn how to use a laptop, tablet, etc. safely?
- increase your job prospects?
- get ready for further education?

Is it for me?

The benefits of developing these skills and having the confidence to use them can be far reaching and life changing. It can also improve your health and well-being.

What have you got to lose?
