Dear Sir/Madam.

I hereby give 28-days notice of the renunciation of:

Signed by Tenant:

Signed by Joint Tenant:

Date:

I understand that I may have the right to occupy the property under the Matrimonial Homes Act, in this case I also wish to relinquish my occupancy rights.

Signed by Tenant:

Signed by Joint Tenant/Husband or Wife who is not a tenant:

Date:

Forwarding Address:

Any tenant or joint tenant holds occupancy rights to a property. If you are married, but not the tenant of the property, you will also have the right to occupy the matrimonial home under current legislation. If you wish to end your occupancy rights as well, please sign the declaration above. For further information on this please contact the Housing Management on 01856873535. You may wish to seek independent legal advice before signing. This can be obtained from a solicitor, Citizens Advice Bureau or the Housing Officer – Advice and Information (based in Housing Services).

It would be useful to know why you are terminating your tenancy.

Transferring to another OIC property.
Taking up a housing association property.
Moving into residential home.
Taking up a private tenancy.
Buying a home in the private sector.
